

Final Project

17 Days – A Graphic Diary

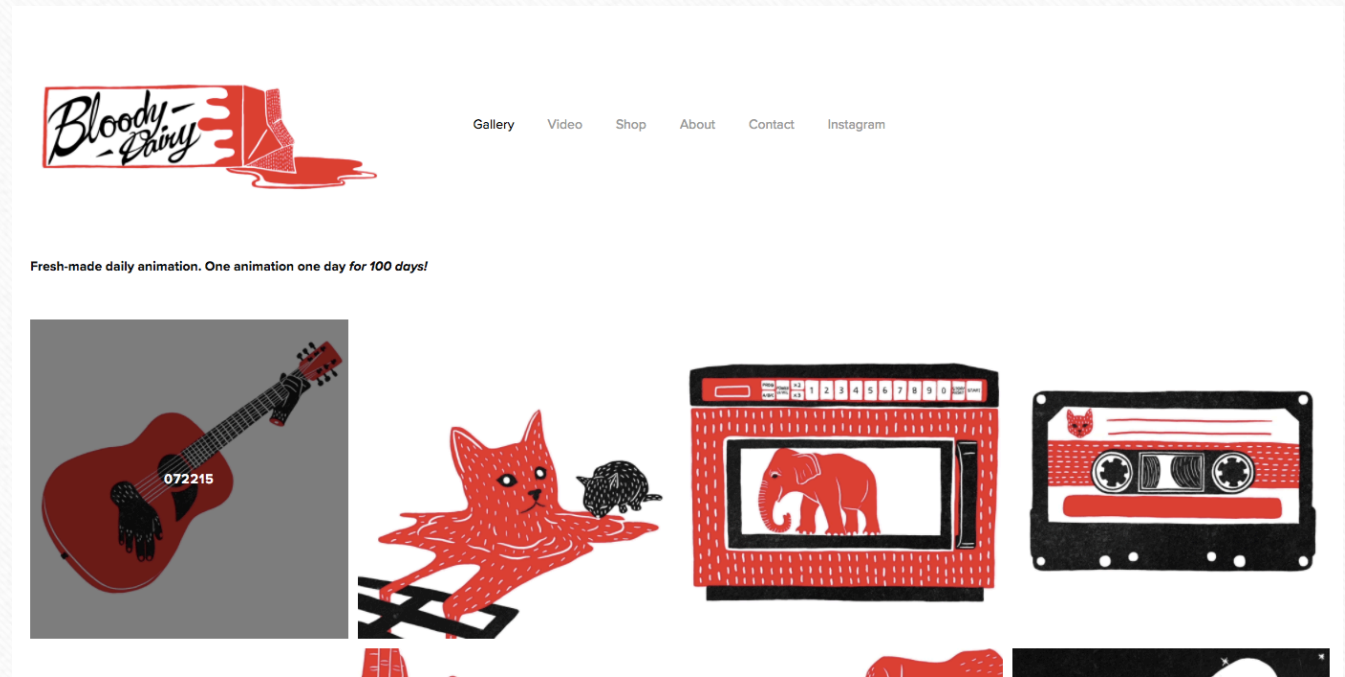

- Challenge is to make a design a day in order to learn Photoshop Sketch and Illustrator Draw using a tablet and stylus
- Goal is to learn a new graphic design skill, showcase capability to learn new things, and show progression throughout project
- Will also feature page to display past work using other mediums, as well as other graphic design programs

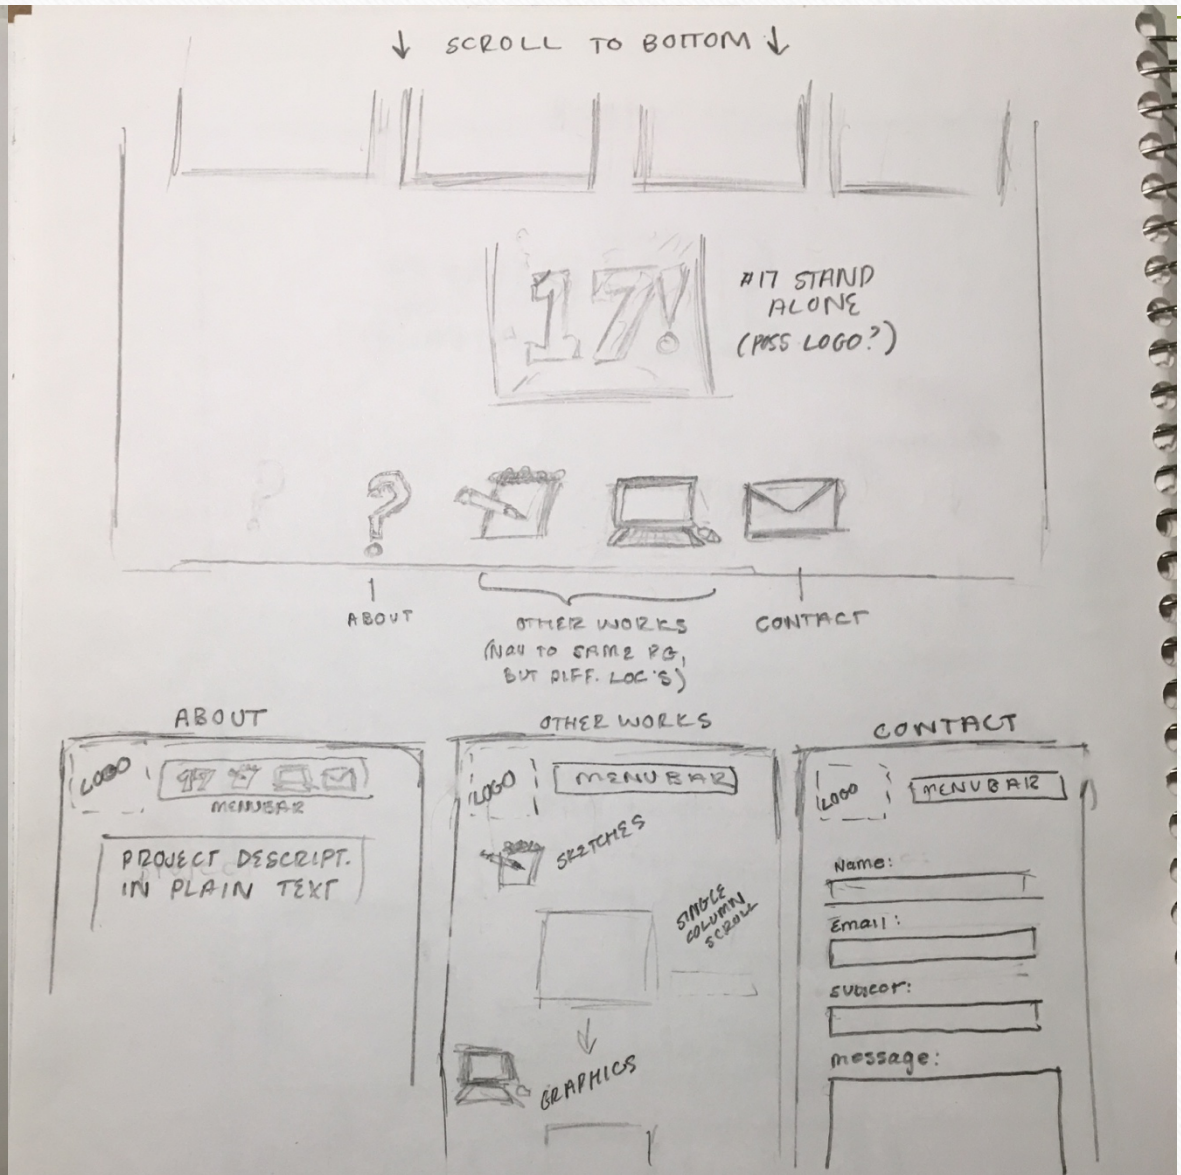

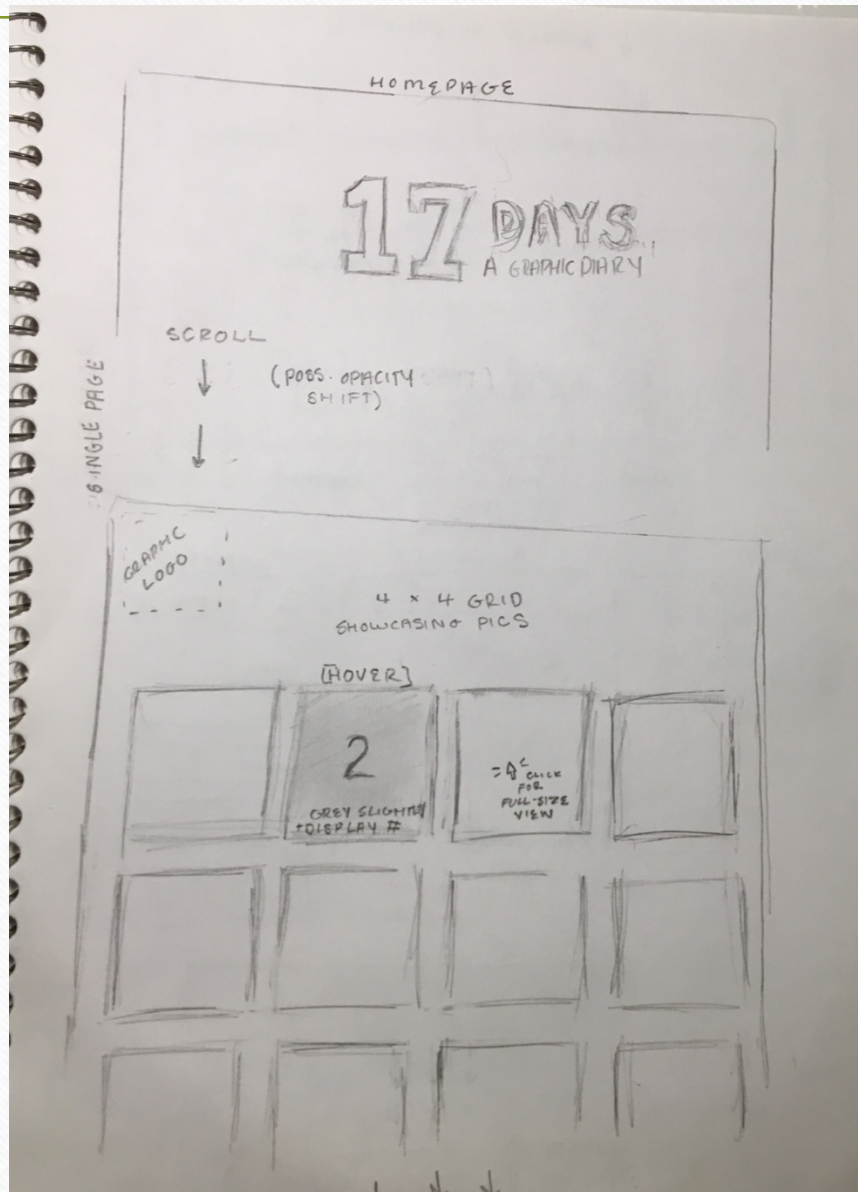

Inspiration

Min Liu's Bloody Diary

<http://www.min-liu.com/bloody-dairy-a-daily-animation-project>

<http://bloody-dairy.com/>

Style

- Black background
- Primary color palette
- Simple font
 - American Typewriter for headings
 - Courier New
- (hopefully) handmade logos

Showreel / 2016

Bloody Dairy / A daily Animation Project

Gifs

Animation

Vines

Bio

Contact

Min Liu is a Taiwanese motion graphics designer and animator, who earned her BA in 2010 from National Taiwan University in Taipei and her MFA in Computer Art with a concentration in 2D animation and motion graphics from the School of Visual Arts, NYC in 2013. She focuses on hand drawn cel animation since then.

Her style is unique and with a dark sense of humor. She plays with increased consideration for negative space and a strong color palette to create a special and impressive visual.

She is based in Brooklyn, NYC now.

